

Feed back from Asia Group

Summary

- All governments have already started giving importance to women and children
- They will ensure strong commitment from governments
- Bring the different stakeholders together when they get back
- Use media to disseminate information
- Some countries need technical support for capacity building
- Available funding should be allocated to MNCH

